- (b) Provide a brief summary of the corporate governance policy that the board of directors has adopted. Please emphasize the policy/ies relative to the treatment of all shareholders, respect for the rights of minority shareholders and of other stakeholders, disclosure duties, and board responsibilities.

The Board delineated the PMPC's corporate governance policy on the rights of the stockholders in relation to: (1) right to vote on all matters that require approval (2) Pre-emptive right to all stock issuances of the corporation (3) Right to information (4) Right to receive dividends and (5) Appraisal right.

- (c) How often does the Board review and approve the vision and mission?

The Board annually reviews the company's vision and mission if it remains consistent with the company's objectives and Corporate Charter.

(d) Directorship in Other Companies

(i) Directorship in the Company's Group²

Identify, as and if applicable, the members of the company's Board of Directors who hold the office of director in other companies within its Group:

² The Group is composed of the parent, subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures of the company.

Director's Name	Corporate Name of the Group Company	Type of Directorship (Executive, Non-Executive, Independent). Indicate if director is also the Chairman.
Koji Takatori	Panasonic Asia Pacific Pte. Ltd.,	Non-Executive
Eiji Fukumori	Panasonic Asia Pacific Pte, Ltd	Non-Executive
HiroYuki Tagishi	Panasonic Asia Pacific Pte. Ltd.	Non-Executive

(ii) Directorship in Other Listed Companies

Identify, as and if applicable, the members of the company's Board of Directors who are also directors of publicly-listed companies outside of its Group:

None. All our directors do not have either directorship responsibility or relationship with other listed companies that may have impact on PMPC's governance policy and procedures.

Director's Name	Name of Listed Company	Type of Directorship (Executive, Non-Executive, Independent). Indicate if director is also the Chairman.

(iii) Relationship within the Company and its Group

Provide details, as and if applicable, of any relation among the members of the Board of Directors, which links them to significant shareholders in the company and/or in its group:

All of our directors do not have relationship which links them to significant shareholders in the company and/or in its group.

Director's Name	Name of the Significant Shareholder	Description of the relationship

(iv) Has the company set a limit on the number of board seats in other companies (publicly listed, ordinary and companies with secondary license) that an individual director or CEO may hold simultaneously? In particular, is the limit of five board seats in other publicly listed companies imposed and observed? If yes, briefly describe other guidelines:

The Board have adopted the five (5) directorship limiting guideline in other companies. The guidelines are stipulated in the Manual on Corporate Governance that is being followed by the nominating committee. Most of the local directors are directors of PMPC only while resident Japanese directors hold at most two (2) directorships (usually affiliates).

A director is also required to notify his/her incumbent Board before accepting a directorship in another company. This is for the Board to be able to assess if his/her present responsibilities and commitment to the company will be affected and if the director can still adequately provide what is expected of him/her.

	Guidelines	Maximum Number of Directorships in other companies
Executive Director		5
Non-Executive Director		5
CEO		2

(e) Shareholding in the Company

Complete the following table on the members of the company's Board of Directors who directly and indirectly own shares in the company:

2) Chairman and CEO

- (a) Do different persons assume the role of Chairman of the Board of Directors and CEO? If no, describe the checks and balances laid down to ensure that the Board gets the benefit of independent views.

Yes ☐

No ☒

Identify the Chair and CEO:

Chairman of the Board	Shinichi Hayashi
CEO/President	Shinichi Hayashi

The role of the Chairman of the Board and CEO/President are performed by one person. However, the role of each position is separately specified in the Company's Manual on Corporate Governance.

As a measure to ensure objectivity, check and balance on the Board, a lead director from the ranks of independent directors is planned to be created. The Board pre-selected the Chairman of the Audit Committee as the Board lead director pending the final resolution from the Board. The role of the lead director is also specified in the Company's Manual on Corporate Governance.

(b) Roles, Accountabilities and Deliverables

Define and clarify the roles, accountabilities and deliverables of the Chairman and CEO.

	Chairman	Chief Executive Officer
Role	Presides over meeting of the Board	General supervision of the business, affairs, property of the company
Accountabilities	Provides strategic leadership to the Board, and to participate in Board decision-making.	Ensures that all orders and resolution of the Board are carried into effect including the company's strategic objectives.
Deliverables	Oversight over the company's strategic objectives	Submits to the Board and stockholder at the annual meeting, a complete report of the operations of the Company for the preceding year, and the state of its affairs.

- 3) Explain how the board of directors plans for the succession of the CEO/Managing Director/President and the top key management positions?

PMPC has succession policy in place that establishes professional development program and succession planning for personnel who are qualified to be officers of the company. The objective of the succession plan is to ensure the orderly identification and selection of new CEO/Executive Officer in case the need arises, whether such opening exists by reason of an anticipated retirement, an unanticipated departure, increase of in the number of officer or otherwise.

However, the approval of the Panasonic Parent Company in Japan is required for the position of CEO/President, and Japanese directors to be assigned at PMPC. The company's policy on succession planning includes among others identifying prospective personnel who shall be part the pool of personnel that will undergo the professional development program both local and abroad. These personnel are intended to be groomed as part of executive management in the future when the need arises.

- 4) Other Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors

Does the company have a policy of ensuring diversity of experience and background of directors in the board? Please explain.

PMPC has written policy and procedures on board diversity policy that are currently in place. PMPC recognizes and embraces the benefits of having a diverse Board, and sees increasing diversity at Board level as an essential element in maintaining a competitive advantage. The Board includes and make good use of differences in the skills, regional and industry experience, background, race, gender and other distinctions between Directors. These differences are considered in determining the optimum composition of the Board. All Board appointments are made on merit, in the context of the skills, experience, independence and knowledge which the Board as a whole requires to be effective. The Board has female independent director with appropriate qualification and skills on board.

Does it ensure that at least one non-executive director has an experience in the sector or industry the company belongs to? Please explain.

All incumbent non-executive and independent directors have served PMPC and/or other Panasonic affiliated companies for many years. Even the independent directors have previously served as finance managers/consultant of PMPC.

Define and clarify the roles, accountabilities and deliverables of the Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors:

	Executive	Non-Executive	Independent Director
Role	Direct and active management of the business of the Company. See that all orders and resolution of the Board are carried into effect.	Participate in the Board Decision making. Review the audit and non-audit fees of external auditor.

Provide the company's definition of "independence" and describe the company's compliance to the definition.

"Independence" shall mean a person other than an officer or employee of the corporation, its parent or subsidiaries, or any other individual having a relationship with the corporation, which would interfere with the exercise of independent judgment in carrying out the responsibilities of a director. Both of PMPC's amended by-laws and manual on corporate governance include the definition of independence. PMPC Independent Directors annually sign the SEC's certification of independent director.

Does the company have a term limit of five consecutive years for independent directors? If after two years, the company wishes to bring back an independent director who had served for five years, does it limit the term for no more than four additional years? Please explain.

The Board's independent directors shall serve for a maximum cumulative term of nine (9) years. After which, the independent director shall be perpetually barred from re-election as such in the same company, but may continue to qualify for nomination and election as a non-independent director. In the instance that a company wants to retain an independent director who has served for nine years, the Board shall provide meritorious justification/s and seek shareholders' approval during the annual shareholders' meeting.

G. INTERNAL AUDIT AND CONTROL

1) Internal Control System

Disclose the following information pertaining to the internal control system of the company:

- (a) Explain how the internal control system is defined for the company;
The Internal Control System is defined for the company using the COSO's Internal Control – Integrated Framework and Enterprise Risk Management Framework to address internal control related risk. COSO defines internal control as "a process, effected by an entity's board of directors, management and other personnel, designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the achievement of objectives in the following categories: effectiveness and efficiency of operations, reliability of financial reporting, and compliance with applicable laws and regulations."
- (b) A statement that the directors have reviewed the effectiveness of the internal control system and whether they consider them effective and adequate;
There was no statement disclosure that the directors reviewed the effectiveness of internal control system. However, the company has internal audit that performs the assessment of the Company's governance process, risk management and operation. The Internal Audit reports functionally with the Audit Committee.
- (c) Period covered by the review. The period covered by review is Fiscal Year 2016. However, there was no disclosure on the company's annual report or other SEC reports regarding the status of the company's internal control system.
- (d) How often internal controls are reviewed and the directors' criteria for assessing the effectiveness of the internal control system; and
The Company's internal controls are primarily reviewed by the Company's Internal Auditors based on the Board approved annual audit plan. The content of the annual audit plan includes the audit of internal control over financial statement preparation and reporting, governance, risk management and operation. The Audit Committee which oversees the company's Internal Audit quarterly reviews and reports annually to the Board on the overall status of the company's internal controls to ensure that it remain effective to achieve the objectives of the business units, system or operation. Both the Internal Audit and Audit Committee use the COSO's Internal Control – integrated framework and Sarbanes Oxley (SOX) to assess the internal control systems.

The Board's annual assessment of internal control considers:

- the changes since the last annual assessment in the nature and extent of significant risks, and the company's ability to respond to changes in its business and the external environment;
- the scope and quality of management's ongoing monitoring of risks and of the system of internal control, and, where applicable, the work of its internal audit function and other providers of assurance;
- the extent and frequency of the communication of the results of the monitoring to the board (or board committee(s)) which enables it to build up a cumulative assessment of the state of control in the company and the effectiveness with which risk is being managed;
- the incidence of significant control failings or weaknesses that have been identified at anytime during the period and the extent to which they have resulted in unforeseen outcomes or contingencies that have had, could have had, or may in the future have, a material impact on the company's financial performance or condition; and
- the effectiveness of the company's public reporting processes.

- (e) Where no review was conducted during the year, an explanation why not.

In accordance with SEC's Code of Corporate Governance, PMPC shall fully disclose and state the reasons in the annual report and other SEC reports in the event the Board does not conduct a review the company's internal control system.
