SUGGESTED REPLACEMENT: Replacement is the "Z" case size TES series
SMT Tantalum Capacitors

The EEJ-K KE Series Tantalum electrolytic capacitor has been discontinued.

The "Z" case size TES series SMT Tantalum Capacitor is the recommended replacement for the KE series.

Generally the "Z" case size TES series is a drop in replacement for the KE series but there may be some exceptions in CV value availability, etc. Please contact the Resident engineer for the exact replacement part number without any deviations.
