Thank you very much for participating in the Lumix 20th anniversary project, "Lumix 20 Years with You." We see the photos you have contributed, and each and every photo and video you have captured with Lumix over the past 20 years is an irreplaceable treasure. As a token of our gratitude to all of you who have supported us over the last two decades and to commemorate our journey together, we have made a small photobook of some of these treasures that you have shared.

These are moments that move us, and invaluable stories that we want to share with others. Any of us can express such moments that we encounter in our lives through photos and videos. And our creations can reach farther than ever, so that all can share the experience and the excitement. Through photography and videography, our world keeps expanding.

Our mission at Lumix is to keep this wonderful phenomenon growing. To be an indispensable partner to creators, and to support everyone's creativity. We are resolved to go beyond the framework of cameras in contributing to the development of photographic and imaging culture everywhere. As we celebrate the 20th anniversary of the introduction of the first Lumix product, we are further strengthening our commitment to this mission, and continuing to move forward proactively.

This photo was taken with Lumix FZ 20, back in 2005. I decided to purchase the camera only because of the fix 2.8 on Leica lens, and the result was great. .

FZ30 #lumixwithyou2007

I'm using Lumix since 2007 for its quality and versatility that make our cameras great for photos and videos. For this photo I was in Italy, Castelluccio di Norcia famous for lentils fields that create a great combination of colours. I used my first Lumix, a FZ30 that I used for long time before to get my first mirrorless camera.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY LUMIX's

It's really fun playing with photography, many memories can be stored without many words and Lumix is here to accompany my hobby to capture whatever I think can represent my feelings. Owning a Lumix DMC-FZ50 for me is a legend, with photo results that I think live up to expectations. The photo below was taken in 2011 at the Car Free Day event on Jalan Dago Bandung and the photo is part of a cycling campaign in the city of Bandung

I used the fabulous, original Lumix G1 with the 14-45mm f3.5-5.6 Lumix G Vario lens. I was on the ferry from Portsmouth to Bilbao in Spain, and I saw this paintwork. I had to take the shot! I thought the square format suited the subject.

Our story started in 2006 when I saw for the first time the DMC-L1. I felt in love at the very first look at him :-). My very first meet with this splendid animals was in 2010. The Bioparc is located in France. The Lumix DMC-L1 is fantastic even it is old now. Strong and sold as I said it was the best way to leave film to digital. Same sensations using this Lumix L1 as I had using Nikon F2A (with MD3). My Lumix life has started this day :-)

These successful 20 years are a statement of the true Japanese legacy that Lumix has been built on which is innovation and excellence and I'm happy to be a part of this legacy for the past 10 years. For me it's not just a tool or a camera, it's an emotion, nostalgia to be precise and as travel opens up I look forward to travelling with my buddy.

I took these photos in Japan between 2011 and 2013, when I was working in Japan. At the time I also worked at Panasonic Factory, situated in Oizumi-machi - Gunma-Ken. With my history I celebrate the evolution of Panasonic Lumix.

A story that accompanied my little story as an amateur photographer. From my first photos with the unforgettable LZ1. Continuing with the quality of the Tz models, to reach the turning point: the FZ50, great love and more awareness. As I became more mature, I decided among the first in Rome to embrace a concept: Lumix G1, the first microfourthirds mirrorless camera with interchangeable lenses.

It's a long path to a brand. It's necessary creativity, innovation and reliability to be where you came. With you I could discover the joy of the photography and express myself by it, recording my best memories with my family and my friends in real colors forever. You are really part of my life! Go on and still doing your best as ever!

I have always had a passion for photography and I started taking pictures by choosing a LUMIX FZ300. I immediately enjoyed using it, the photos are of quality. Lumix encourages photographers on Instagram, liking and commenting under posts. it's a very nice and pleasant thing!

For this shot, I had to walk through a dark forest, climb a slag heap and wait for the sun to rise. But it was worth it. Even after 6 years, this is one of my best shots.

You can see the headframes of the mine of Eisden, Belgium. Shot with the FZ200 in 2015.

What a ride it's been. I joined you in 2012 with the FZ200, upgraded to the FZ1000 in 2016 and in 2019 to my current G9. I've been in iceland at -20 degrees celsius, i've been shooting in +40 degrees celcius. None of my Lumix cameras failed me once! Thank you so much for giving us such reliable, easy to use, clever Cameras full of amazing features. I'm really excited what the future of Lumix will bring to us :)

This is the 20th Anniversary of Panasonic Lumix cameras. And to celebrate they are doing a giveaway for Lumix users. I have been a big fan of them since I got my first Lumix G3 back in 2012. First photo was taken on a Lumix DMC-G3 the second was taken on a Lumix DMC-G7 and picture 3 was taken on a Lumix DMC-G9.

SCOUT x Sometimes all it takes, is a keylight, a rimlight and a view into the distance. I really like the slightly undeterminable expression of @sophiecharlotte5 xxx What do you think I was going through her mind in that moment?

It's never easy to pick your favorite photos but these 3 are special to me.

The moon shot in the first photo was done handheld with a 600mm FF equivalent focal length at a 1/15 shutter speed, without the amazing combined lens IS and the IBIS of my G9 this shot would have been impossible to make without using a tripod. impossible to make without using a tripod.
